

USS SAVAGE DE/DER 386

≈ 2013 REUNION ≈

Mobile, Alabama: September 29 - October 4, 2013

The fabulous 2013 USS Savage reunion is just six months away, so it's time to mark your calendars and make your reservations. This is one event you won't want to miss.

Location

The reunion will be held in historic Mobile Bay, home of the Battleship Alabama, the Mardi Gras Museum, scores of stately anti-bellum homes, and lots to do.

Hotel

Our hotel is a beautiful new facility that enjoys an excellent reputation for hosting ships' reunions. Your reunion committee visited it, and rated it head and shoulders above all the other hotels in the area, both for its sleeping rooms, and its conference and banquet facilities. And, best of all, room rates have been reduced substantially for our group, thanks to the superb negotiating skills of one of our members!
